Gwynedd Business Support Bulletin 04.11.2020

New Coronavirus regulations 9 November 2020

The Welsh First Minister has stated in the Senedd yesterday, 3 November 2020, that new regulations to be introduced on 9 November 2020 will allow many businesses which open to the Public, and which were required to close during the firebreak, to reopen. Groups of up to four people will be allowed to meet in a regulated setting such as a restaurant, cafe or pub, but that this will be subject to strict protections discussed with the hospitality sector, including advance booking, time-limited slots and verified identification. Once the published guidance regarding this is available, we will notify you.
