Firebreak NDR grant closes at 5:00pm today – Discretionary grant extended

Gwynedd Council is encouraging businesses in the county to present their applications for Welsh Government financial support to help companies affected by the firebreak lockdown. The Lockdown Non-Domestic Rates Grants being administered by Local Authorities will close at 5:00pm today, 20 November 2020. The Lockdown Discretionary Grant will remain open for now but don't delay in applying! When applying, ensuring that all the relevant documents required are provided, and ensuring that the application is filled in correctly will speed up the process. Companies House issue ‘don’t leave it until the last minute’ advice to businesses

Companies House have issued a press release urging company directors and accountants to file earlier than usual and online. Companies across the UK are being urged not to leave filing their annual accounts until the last minute and consider going paperless, as the disruption caused by coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to affect people’s lives, businesses and the economy. Ask the expert: Superfast Business Wales answer your digital questions

Throughout the pandemic digital has been a lifeline for small business owners, helping them stay in touch with customers, sell online and keep their business going while they’ve been limited by COVID-19 restrictions. Superfast Business Wales (SFBW) offer regular webinars, and following these sessions, four questions have been asked over and over.

- How do I market my business online?
- How do I sell online?
- How do I run my business online?
- How do I use digital to save time and be more efficient?

Superfast Business Wales trainer Austin Walters answers these questions asked about digital. Go to:
