

OUR RECOMMENDATIONS

Given all the options available and investigating how each route meets the objective criteria, the Council recommends the above route. This route is the fastest and most direct route between the two settlements, which is important for people traveling to work. The route is easy to follow and has the lowest environmental impact of all the options.

